Touchscreens

TouchWindow®

This touchscreen, from Edmark Corp., is external to your Macintosh or PC. The screen is attached to the face (edges) of your monitor with Velcro® and may be taken off if you prefer to use the touchscreen on your lap or beside your keyboard. The screen is designed for use with a 12", 13", 14", or 15" monitor.

Mac: The touchscreen is plugged into the Apple Desktop Bus (ADB) port of your Mac and will work with any Mac software.

PC: The touchscreen is plugged into any unused serial port of your Windows/DOS computer and will work with any PC software.

The TouchWindow does not mount well on the PowerBooks and is not recommended for that use. The price includes everything needed.

X085 TouchWindow (Macintosh) $335.00

Works only on a Macintosh with ADB port (except Mac Plus or Mac 512) and system 6.0.5 or higher.

X085W Touch Window (PC) $335.00

Works only on Windows/DOS compatible computers with an unused serial port.
