

“Journey from Accountability to Program Improvement”

November 13th, 2009, 10:00 – 11:30 a.m. EST

Sponsored by

ACE of Florida, Inc. and the FLDOE, Career & Adult Education

Tentative Agenda

- 1. Overview: Robert Breitbard, Administrator, Adult Education, Collier County Public Schools
- 2. Welcome: Loretta Costin, Vice-Chancellor, Division of Career & Adult Education, FLDOE
- 3. Where Are We Now in Florida with Regard to Data Quality and Use
Presenter: John C. Wigley, Director, Adult & Community Education, Brevard County Public Schools
- 4. Moving from Accountability to Program Improvement Using Data
Presenter: Mark Baird, Director, Research & Evaluation, Career & Adult Education, FLDOE
- 5. Adult General Education Reporting – Best Practices for Data Quality
Presenter: Manny Casteneda, Miami-Dade County Public Schools
- 6. What Data Can Do for Administrators and Teachers
Presenter: Kristy Presswood, Associate Vice President, College of Education, Daytona State College

Questions for the section: Robert Breitbard

- 7. Data Reporting System – 2010-2011 Updates
Presenter: Craig Winger, Program Specialist, FLDOE
- 8. Adult High School (Co-enrolled Program Number)
Presenter: Tara Goodman, Bureau Chief, Budget, Accountability & Assessment, FLDOE
- 9. Compliance and Monitoring on Data Reporting Requirements
Presenter: Eileen Amy, Bureau Chief, Compliance, FLDOE

Questions for the section: Robert Breitbard

- 10. Where We Are Going with Regard to Data Use in Florida
Presenters: John C. Wigley and Craig Winger

Close and Thank You: Robert Breitbard

