

Descriptive/Non-Descriptive Feedback Cards

Print these cards out and cut apart. Place into an envelope for an activity with your peers. You will need an envelope with these cards for every group you establish. Optimum number in each group is two to four.

The activity is to sort the statements in two different groups: Descriptive Feedback Statements and Non-Descriptive Feedback Statements. Use the group cards provided below.

These “L”s look like “V”s	The lab report is missing the explanation of the chemical reactions	Your back foot is not coming up high enough to clear the hurdle
The two adjectives don’t have gender agreements with the noun	The first sentence tells the reader the main idea	The pianissimo was louder than the forte
I don’t see supporting details in the thesis	B+	You aren’t using what you know about adjectives
Think about the position of your body	Reread the assignment	Add a conclusion
Watch your “p”s and “f”s	Excellent	You can do better!
Messy!	Descriptive Feedback	Non-Descriptive Feedback