

Florida Public School Reading Funding

Prior to 1999, there were no funds in the budget specifically for reading. Since that time, funding for reading has risen to $188 million. These funds go to provide reading coaches and science-based reading programs in our public schools.